

Instructions to authors

The ROMANIAN JOURNAL OF DERMATOLOGY is the official organ of the Romanian Society of Dermatology & Venereology. It welcomes contributions that advance the medical science and practice of dermatology and venereology. Emphasis is placed upon aspects of the specialty that are of interest to the practicing dermato-venereologist. The journal has four editions in a year. The medium time for an article to be published after submitted to the Editor is three months.

I. Types of Contribution:

Manuscripts are welcome in the following categories and preference will be given to articles that fall within the limits and definitions given:

- Editorials (brief substantiated commentary on particular subjects): Maximum three pages and should be initially discussed with the Editor Committee
- Original Research Articles (clinical and investigative laboratory research articles, therapeutically challenges): Maximum ten pages
- Case Reports: Maximum six pages
- General Articles (synthesis): Maximum ten pages
- Brief Communications: Maximum three pages
- Letters to the Authors: Maximum two pages
- Book Reviews: Maximum 1-2 pages
- Advertisements (scientific events, conference reports, etc.)

II. Organization of Manuscripts

The article should contain in this exact order:

1. Full title; 2. Abstract in English; 3. Introduction; 4. Materials and Methods; 5. Results; 6. Discussions; 7. Conclusions; 8. Other comments; 9. References; 10. Figures legend; 11. Figures (photos); 12. Tables.

Every part of the manuscript, including the title page, references, tables, etc., should be numbered.

- First page should contain: full title, name(s) of the author(s) without academic titles, complete postal address(es) of the affiliations(s) of the authors(s). We recommend the maximum number of authors should not exceed six for an article.
- Next, first page should contain the article's abstract in Romanian (for romanian authors) and English, maximum 300 words for each abstract.
- After each abstract a list keywords (3-7 items) should be attached in Romanian and English.
- At the end of the first page the complete name, complete telephone, fax numbers and current e-mail address of the corresponding author should be mentioned.
- The entire manuscript should be typed double-space, with a 3 cm space to the left side and with mandatory Romanian diacritical signs. The article should be sent to the Editor in the form of listed material and also electronic format (CD, floppy disc). The approximate position of the figures and tables can be mentioned.
- After the main text of the article and before references authors are request to disclose the financial sources, any financial or other arrangement they may have with a company whose product is mentioned in this article.
- All publications cited in the text should be presented in a list of references following the text of the manuscript. References should be numbered in accordance with appearance in the text or in alphabetical order of the main authors. Every reference should contain the family name and the initial of the first name of the three main authors, the original article's name, the abbreviated publication's name (according to the Medical Subject Headings from Index Medicus), the year when was published, the number of the publication, first and last page and for the books the author name and title, the Editor, town, year of publicaton. In the manuscript the reference's number should be listed in straight parenthesis.

- Tables should be presented on separate sheets of paper, they should have brief and self-explanatory titles and be numbered with Romanic letters in the order in which they appear in the text. The author will specify the place where the tables will be inserted in the text.
- Figures (photos) must have a good quality; the back of each figure should carry the following information: figure number in the order in which they appear in the text and an arrow indicating the top of the figure. The figures will be sent as photographs and in electronic format (CD). Authors must mention where figures will be inserted in the text. Patients appearing in photographs should have their identity concealed or should give write consent to publication.

III. The manuscripts have to respect all the following conditions:

- All articles will be subject to peer-review by one or more referees of the Scientific Editor Committee. The comments of these referees will be passed later on to the authors of the manuscript.
- Submission of an article is understood to imply that the article is original and unpublished and not being considered for publication elsewhere.
- Any material (figures, tables, paragraphs from other articles) which has been published elsewhere must be accompanied by written consent to republication by the copyright holder and the authors. It is the author's responsibility to ensure that no part of any manuscript submitted for publication in the journal will be libelous or infringe upon or violate any copyright or any other personal or proprietary rights, or negligently contain material which will be harmful or otherwise be unlawful.
- Human subject experiments should be in accordance with the ethical standards of a responsible committee and with the Helsinki Declaration. Animal studies should also be carried out within recognised guidelines for the care of laboratory animals.
- Authors must avoid conflict of interest and are requested to disclose any financial or other arrangement they may have with a company whose product is mentioned in this article.
- The author will transfer the manuscript's copyright to the Romanian Society of Dermatology & Venereology and the material (figures, tables, paragraphs) from the article can't be published anywhere else without the written consent of the Dermatology Journaly.
- The Publisher, the Romanian Society of Dermatology & Venereology and the Scientific Editor Committee cannot be held responsible for errors or any consequences arising from the use of information contained in this journal; the views and opinions expressed do not necessarily reflect those of the Publisher, the Romanian Society of Dermatology & Venerology and the Scientific Editor Committee of the products advertised.
